

AGGIES On A Quest For Success

January 8, 2018

... from Mr. Moore's Desk

Greetings Parents & Scholars:

Welcome Back!!!! It is my sincerest hope that each of you, my little brothers/sisters and their families had a wonderful, relax filled, blessed break with some reading of course!

I am excited to be back and have each of my scholars returning. Now that we are in January, it is imperative that I be candid. The rigor and the expectations are going to noticeably increase. It is that time in education, especially in my class that the pedal gets pushed to the floor. It's full speed ahead or better yet, it is time for us all to view the learning that takes place with a sense of urgency. I say the remainder of the year, because in less than two months the writing assessment will be given, in less than three months the reading assessment will be given and before you know it middle school will be upon you all. WE must be ready to tackle the state test and you must be ready for the next chapter. I will get our babies there with your assistance and with your reinforcing what they learned in class!

We can and we will do this!!! Please feel free to call me with any questions or concerns.

Mr. Moore

Academic Success Corner

Parents I am honestly concerned with the lack of work or studying taking place outside of the classroom.

While there are some of our scholars who are reading on or above grade level, the vast majority of our babies are way below grade level. We can get them there but it will take all of us. I assure you that I am going to give them the instruction needed based off of data and key observation, but I need you to ensure that they practice what was learned through the studying of notes, nightly reading with documentation using strategies learned, occasional assigned homework and i-Ready.

I realize that it may seem like a struggle and for many it is, but it is not too much work if we want them to move.

Please help me help them grow academically in the area of reading comprehension and fluency.

This mentoring program that I founded with two gentlemen a little over eleven years ago is back up finally at Tiger. Meetings will begin next week

Any fathers that would like to assist, it is much appreciated. Also if you know anyone in various career fields that wouldn't mind coming out and talking to our boys, please let me know.
