What's Tea with Ms. Lee:

- If you have not already done so, please send me a message on class dojo to schedule your parent-teacher conference. These will be held on Monday's, Tuesday's, and Thursday's after school.
- Homework is due each Monday along with signed behavior charts.
- Wednesday folders (from the school) will be sent home each Wednesday and are expected to be returned each Thursday. Please check the folders for information about your student from the school prior to returning them to school the next day.
- We have a lot of fun opportunities for you to get involved this week so I hope to see you around campus this week.

Spelling Words of the Week:

Ship, wish, brush, she, we, this, that, then, they, their

*This Friday, your students will be tested on these words.

These are words your scholars will be expected to identify in their reading curriculum so please practice reading them with your scholar:
Life cycle, change, grow, living things

“ There are no short cuts to any place worth going
Beverly Stills ”

What are we learning?

Phonics: (M-T) Digraphs - SH (W-Th) Digraph - TH voiced

Reading: This week we will complete unit 1 of learning about life cycles and how living things grow and change. Ask your scholar about what a living thing is and what their vocabulary words mean. Please read with your scholar at night and ask comprehension questions that begin with who, what, when, where, why, and how.

Math: This week we will learn more about addition within 20.

Science: This week we will learn about what makes up materials and how to sort them. Following this, we will begin a new unit where we'll learn about the objects in the sky.

SS: This week we will continue to learn about Cuba. In addition we will use our social studies curriculum to learn more about our school and community.
