... from Mr. Moore's Desk

Greetings Parents & Scholars:

One day.... That's right FSA Writes is one day away! The first of the three days of testing in this year's FSA Reading is tomorrow Tuesday, April 2, 2019. Parents I'm so excited because I truly believe that each of my little brothers and sisters is going to do well. They have been working so hard at increasing their stamina and just pure knowledge of how to approach both opinion and expository writing.

By the time you receive this they will have had a short day or review followed by a motivation rally..

Please ensure that they go to bed early with a healthy meal and that they arrive at Tiger by 7:45 am Tuesday morning. Most will test between 9:00 am and 11:30 am.

Thank you all for taking my novels through text and assisting me with getting them ready.

Wednesday is the first day that will resume a stringent hard working regiment full of rigorous work designed to grow our babies in the area of full reading. I am excited about that as well. Our scholars will do extremely well.

If you have any questions please contact me. Thank You!

Mr. Moore

Reading Stamina Information

Having stamina for something means being able to stick with something for periods of time. This stamina, or endurance, builds strength. Stamina can apply to lots of different areas, such as exercise or painting. It can also apply to reading. Teachers often think about a student's reading stamina. Reading stamina is a child's ability to focus and read independently for long periods of time without being distracted or without distracting others. Reading stamina is something that parents can help students develop. As your child moves further into the year, developing reading stamina will help your child navigate the longer texts and assignments. Please enforce that your child reads daily for a minimum of 30 -45 minutes, Monday thru Sunday.

Williams Word

Hi Parents,

I hope all of you enjoyed your weekend.

This week the students will be taking the FSA Writing Test on Tuesday. Please support your child as well as Mr. Moore and I by ensuring that they get the proper rest on Monday night and are ready to do their best writing on Tuesday morning. We will spend the day on Monday motivating our students and answering any last minute questions the students may have. We are confident that they are prepared and will preform wonderfully on the exam. We are truly so proud of the writing growth that we have seen in each and everyone of the students!!

Once the exam is over, we will continue to study George's Secret Key to the Universe in class. The students have been enjoying reading the book together and I have been very impressed with their interest in the book and the work that they are producing! I am one proud intern! :)

As always, I am excited to spend another week with our scholars!

Ms. Williams
