

Ms. L. Lee Class Newsletter

Week: 1/8/24

Important Dates:

- 1/10/24 - Early Release
- 1/11/24 - Science Fair @6p
(Come check out our project)

What's Tea with Ms. Lee:

- WOW, what a nice break we've had! Welcome back families; I am so happy to see our scholars back in class.
- It's that time again for us to schedule those mid-year parent teacher conferences and I'm excited to share your student's progress with you! Please reach out via class dojo to schedule a conference time. I am holding in-person conferences on Mondays through Wednesdays and virtual conferences on Thursdays.
- Our students have a math packet for this week, some phonics practice, and spelling practice I am only grading the math packet but please practice the other skills with your scholar. Thank you!
- Wednesday folders (from the school) will be sent home each Wednesday and are expected to be returned each Thursday. If you see an orange folder at home please return it back to school.

Spelling Words of the Week:

hi, no, hip, until, contest,
submit
*Our scholars will be tested on these words this Friday.

“
A bend in the road is not the end of the road ... unless you fail to make the turn.

What are we learning?

Phonics: (M-T) Open Syllables (W-Th) Closed/Closed Syllables

Reading: We have entered unit 4 where we are learning all about how people create stories This week in particular we are learning about the perspective of characters in the text and the three main story elements.

Math: We have entered a new unit in math as well. This week we will begin to learn more about the meaning of subtraction through word problems. 8-1 through 8-5 is what's been assigned for this week as homework.

Science: In science we've discovered what living things are and what makes them living. I encourage you to engage with your scholar about what they are able to identify as living and nonliving. I have placed a graphic organizer in their homework packet to help with recording what they've observed.

SS: This week we are learning about other cultures and how to be respectful of how other cultures celebrate the Holiday season.
